ENGLISH PACKET REVIEW.

This month is usually poor in political items, being vacation for legislators as well as school-boys. The Indian invasions, on the Sta Fé and Buenos Ayreas frontiers, caused no little alarm, and were attended with considerable loss of property, but our expeditionary forces succeeded in driving off the savages. Our Government, however, is beginning to see that the only method for securing our distant settlements is, a friendly compact with the aborigenes, and an American gentleman, bred among the red-men of the U. States, is making arrangements with the Minister of the Interior, to get up an Indian Commission similar to that of the model republic.

The disturbances in Rosario have ended in nothing, and in reality the alarm was exaggerated, if not totally false. The Chief of Police had the rashness to arrest illegally the editors of the "Diario" but the Governor, Sor. Cullen, did not think this a sufficient cause for his removal from office. Our garrison in that city seems to give great umbrage, and the troops accompanying Mess. Roma and Hutchinson, to explore the Chaco, were so unruly that these gentlemen preferred the risk of Indian attacks, to such disagreeable protectors.

General Urquiza devotes all his attention to the estancia and saladero business: some needy conspirators labor to propagate alarming reports, for which there is no foundation. We are told, the Nat. Gov. demanded the arsenal of Cuiú, but no official documents have appeared on the subject, and as it is the General's private property he would be justified in giving the Spartan reply "como and take it".

The Governor of Mendoza has practised a coup d'etat dissolving the Prov. Chambers at the point of the bayonet: he has committed a more nefarious folly, by ordering capital punishment to be inflicted on all who steal the value of 25 dollars, as also on fraudulent bankrupts &c. In Buenos Ayres we follow the other extreme, as we see many outlaws at large who have murdered more than one fellow-creature, in cold blood.

Rioja is still infested with gangs of vagabond gauchos. Petroleum springs have been discovered in various parts, but until the stimulus of foreign enterprise come to develop the native riches of our interior these mineral treasures will o deserv. ser ' an progress.

In the way of public education and industry, a new mine called "Rickard" was giving 600 marks silver the cajon. Cordova suffers great poverty, and robberies, in the capital, are frequent: speculators have bought up many of the lands through which the proposed railway to Rosario must pass. The other upper provinces are quiet, and slowly recovering from the miseries which followed the last war.

In B. Aires we have to remark the hostile symptoms of a certain hot-headed faction against Pres. Mitre, their former idol, which, unless repressed in time, may cause serious uneasiness to the President, at present staying at the suburb of S. Isidro, for the benefit of his health. The Cabinet has suffered no change, and little has been done since the removal of their offices to the new buildings. The Prov. Government is also inactive, foreseeing its proximate dissolution. The new Governor will probably be Sor. Riestra, whose name will be received in London as a pledge of renewed security for B. Ayres.

In the country districts great disorder still prevails: the capetaz of Mr. McClymont has been murdered in G. Monte; other crimes have been committed in Ensenada, and an Irishman has been found assassinated in Baradero. Dr. Alsina is busy, compiling his Rural Code, but the universal opinion is, that we have driven by a superfluity of Legislation, and want a firm executive, possessed of fit agents to carry out the same.

The Brazilian question has been warmly canvassed, among our British residents, who are almost unanimous in support of Mr. Christie. The Spanish exploring fleet has sailed from M. Video for the Pacific. Some English missionaries are now at Bahia Blanca, studying Spanish and the Indian dialects, preparatory to their invasion of Patagonia: our colleagues profess as much terror of the preachers of the Gospel in that remote territory, as if they were furnished with Armstrong guns.

The weather is very warm and dry, the thermometer, last week, marked 98° in the shade. Small-pox has been prevalent, but the general health of the city is good.

The city of Antwerp is about to commence a line of steamers to this port: the first vessel "Gustave Pastor," S. S. leaves for Antwerp on March. 1st.

INDUSTRIAL REVIEW.

We are happy to inform our foreign readers that the industry of the Argentine Republic is rapidly increasing. We notice, in the Province of San Juan, the opening of a new silver mine. In Corrientes and Entre Rio's, the erection of 3 or 4 new saladeros. In many of the other provinces, both the government and private parties have planted cotton, which we learn is doing well. One of the cotton gins which we received from Manchester, we have sent up to Sr. Gimenez's cotton plantation in Corrientes, from whence we also expect to receive about ten thousand pounds of cotton next month.

Mr. Wheelwright, who arrived here safely per last packet, is about to go to Rosario, in order to see the parties most immediately interested in the carrying out the Cordoba railway. Some difficulties seem to present themselves as to the connection of the lands, but we feel confident that these impediments will be overcome, as there is a general feeling throughout the country, that the Railroad must be made, and that Mr. Wheelwright is the man to make it.

Sr. Adams, who has been so unceasing in his efforts to open the Salado navigation, and thus afford a cheap and easy transit accomodation between Buenos Aires and the very heart of the Republic, is still engaged in exploring this River. We hear favorable accounts from him and are assured that there is every reason to believe his efforts will ultimately be crowned with success. The land grants which the government has already made him, conditioned on the carrying out his project, are of immense value, and if turned to advantage, by means of immigration, must entail incalculable benefits on the country at large.—The fact that the Baron Mauá is associated with Mr. Rams in the enterprize, affords additional guarantees as to the practicability of the scheme and its ultimate success.

The Minister of Government has received answers from the different provinces, to which he had forwarded cotton seed, &c. Owing to their length, we regret our inability to publish them it full; but it will suffice to state that they bear us out in every thing which we asserted in regard to the capability of the country to grow cotton. Happy are we to say that, even in the most unmanned provinces, some of the seed which we received from Manchester has been sown, and the results are most favorable reports. The Cattle are in splendid condition, the sheep farmers, have thirty per cent of all increase in their flocks, and the agriculturalists have most remunerative crops. Seldom has there been such a spring such prosperity to all In Buenos Aires, however, the sheep farmers have not been without their losses, owing to the constant rains. Wool is at least 20 per cent lighter this year than last. Prices, however, notwithstanding the superiority of the staple this season, have hardly maintained last year's figures. Add to this the great loss experienced in the early part of the year, by the camp, causing the death of nearly a third of the lambs. The thistles this year have been a great inconvenience to the farmers also, and serious losses have been incurred, particularly in the north of the Province, in farmers losing one hundred by five hundred sheep from one flock.

The whole future of this great Republic hangs on immigration: without it we can do nothing. Labor, even at the actual gorged rate, therefore, to make the most liberal offers to induce Europeans to come to reside in these retired, yet fabulously rich, provinces. Gen. Mitre has publicly expressed himself on this subject. No warmer supporter, no better friend, no steadier ally, to the best interests of the country at large, have we, than the man who at present rules the Republic. It is to be hoped that his views on this subject will meet with support from the respective Governors of the provinces, and that active energetic men will be appointed to act as immigration agents in all the principal seaports of Europe.

The high price which the Government at present asks for the public lands, has caused the greatest possible discontent amongst all parties, native and private: and will, if persisted in, have a very prejudicial effect upon the interest of our sheep-farmers. We have been informed that the Minister contemplates reducing the price, which we earnestly hope will prove a fact; otherwise many parties arriving from Europe, with the intention of investing in landed property in Buenos Ayres, will be forced to go to some of the other provinces.

The opening of the London, Buenos Aires, and River Plate Bank has been one of the most important items since the settling of the 17 7/8 is, 250 do brown 12rls,—per 12lbs from Havana, 256 boxes white at 18rls; per Nueva Ninfa from Rio 63 barrels brown at 13rls; 111 do at 12rls; per Fire from Antwerp 4-0 barrels refined 64 duty paid; per Gessina Hantge from Antwerp 100 barrels at 18 ris in bond; per Doon Jesus 130 barrels 17 1/2 rls; 200 do low white sugar 17 1/2rls; 400 do brown at 14 rls.

There is great abundance of this article, prices have a declining tendency; if arrivals continue in the same sense a fall is expected.

Rice—200 sacks East India from Ceylon 30 duty paid. There is no stock of American, and no sales of Brazilian or Italian.

Spirits—per Ebsen from Havana 160 pipes at 43 pis; per Venture from Bahia 170 pipes at 48 pats; no sales from the Baltic.

Per Nouveau Mexique from Bordeaux 65.0 cases liqueurs at 16 rls.

Vermicelli—per Julia R. from Genoa 980 boxes at 21rls in bond: Price firm.

Wine.—Per Pana from Barcelona her cargo retailed at 51 pats. per Francisqueta from do 100 pipes at 51 pats. per Virgen del Carmen 270 pipes same price, 40 do, do at 50 do.

There is some difficulty in obtaining this price, which is likely to decline if arrivals continue as up to the present on a large scale.

Oil, per Virgen del Carmen from Barcelona 500 jars at 11¼ rls.

IMPORTS.

Lumber.—Per Hebron from New-York 262,000 feet white pine 41 pat, on board per Kremlin from Port land in cargo at private terms.

Coal: per Western Star from Cardiff 400 tons at 11 1|4 part on board Tiles. per Maria Luisa from Marseilles 50,000 tiles at 22 pats on board.

Salt—per Brigsitte Melchior from Cadiz 3800 fanegas at 9 1|4 rls on board: same amount per Scrivegni from do at same price: a few parcels from Pasagones at 7rls on board; per Stagno from Cadiz 2000 fanegas at 9 1|2 rls; per Solide from do 1700 at same prices

Prices have a declining tendency on account of large imports.

PRODUCE REPORT.

Since last packet transactions in produce have been considerable in saladero produce, dry hides and wool.

A slight decline is observable in the rate of Saladero produce and dry hides and wools have maintained their price without any sensible alteration.

From the rivers we notice more animation in saladero produce and contracts have been made for about 20,000 novillo salted hides at 15 a 16 thousand quintals bee at 15 3|4 and 15 7|8 rls.

Wool. Arrivals from the camp up to the present amount to about 1,300,000 arrobes of which about one million sold and the remainder in deposit. Prices may be quoted as follows.

Fine mestizo, superior	$ 9 1|4 to 9
good do	do	85 to 90
good to fair	do	80 to 85
middling do	do	75 to 80
mixed do	do	65 to 75
inferior do and Creole		50 to 65

The following sales of wool from other parts have been effected during the fortnight.

Banda Oriental 1170 arrobes at 107 1600 do do at 125; 600 do at 6 pats; 480 do do at 4 1|8 do; 180 do at 4 do 100 do at 4 1|2 do.

Entre Rios.—700 arrobes mestizo 30 rls; 6100 do mixing 27 rls; 400 do do at 26 rls; 800 do do at 22 and 25rls;

Cordoba.—Wool is nominal by what sales; but no sales have been effected lately and little offered transactions of carriuches have been effected during the month past for 150 packages at 25 rls.

Hare.—Arrivals have continued on a diminished scale and have come principally from the south of the province which is the best quality. Prices as follows.

Hair, South, mixed	$ 100 to 103
do West do	90 to 95
do North do	80 to 85.

The following sales have been made from the rivers, 21 bales Entre Rio 21 cs. 120 arrobes do 30 1|4 rls, 46 bales Corrientes same price.

Mares Greace.—120 pipes sold for exportation at 40 32 and small lots selling gradually at 35 without cash.

Tallow.—100 pipes at 13 rls.

Hides at 14 1|2 rls. 800 pipes from Entre Rios sold at 15 1|2 rls.

Cattle.—Few sales have been effected during the month at the previous rates of 160 and 170 per head a few choice lots at 190.

Jerked Beef.—2200 quintals at 17 1|2rls; 5000 do do at 16 1|2 rls; 4500 do at 16 rls; 900 do at 18 rls:

Bones and Bone ash Few transactions has been effected chiefly at private terms.

Ostrich Fea hers. Selling in small lots at $ 28 per pound for loose. We know of no transactions in matted feathers, nominal quotations $ 32 a 35.

Sheep skins—Arrivals have become very limit d and prices have risen some what lower than for some time past, on account of the inferior condition of the article.

☞ For hides see our next edition.

EXCHANGE.

About £ 170,000 sterling have been drawn by this mail on England and the continent

The rate on Eng and has been firm at 67 shillings throughout the forthnight and only a few small bills have been taken at under that rate. There have been few drawers and many takers.

Bolivianos currency continues in proving in price there being some demand for the rivers; the last sale have been effected at 20 1|2 per ounce.

Paper money has declined very sensibly since last mail, owing chiefly to the large amount of gold lately exported and speculation. It is now worth $421 1|2 per doubloon.

FREIGHTS

Since raising of Frenc's steamer there has been some movement in saladero produce which with the continued heavy purchases of wool, has given an impulse to the freight market, as can be again very firm with a very limited amount of disengaged tonnage in port.

Dutch brig Castor to load at Patkandu for England take 1 hides at 60 shillings 5 per cent.

Swedish barque Solid for Rotterdam at 50 shillings for hide 5 per cent.

Italian barque Maria F. at Marseilles at 100 fs. for hides, 60 for dry do des and 5 per cent.

British brig Hannah Cosher, to load at Payssandu for England salted hides and tallow at 60 shillings hides at 50 and 5 per cent.

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

COMESTIBLES REPORT.

Our market this month has continued in active and sales show a limited amount of business at sustained rates. Arrivals from the Mediterranean have met the demand.

We have had no arrivals of assorted american goods.

The fluctuations of the specie market have interrupted considerably the state of the trade and brought on, toward the end of the fortnight a very sensible paralization, to which has mainly joined the large quantity of staple imports arrived during the fortnight.

Coffee—per Mersey from Rio Janeiro, 200 bags at 17 1|2 pats.

Yerba—per Adriana Johanes from Paraguna 2 0 packages $ 55 duty paid, per Sirena from do 400 do at 56 1|2 duty paid; 250 do Paraguay from Asuncion at 42rls in bond, 100 packages Misi nes 17rls.

We know of no other sales of Paraguay descriptions.

Sugar—per Daino from Pernambuco 400 barrels at 17 1|2 rls; 450 packages do 17rls, 450 barrels brown at Cocoa—800 sacks East India from Ceylon 30 duty paid. There is no stock of American, and no sales of Brazilian or Italian.

Spirits—per Ebsen from Havana 160 pipes at 43 pis; per Venture from Bahia 170 pipes at 48 pats; no sales from the Baltic.

Per Nouveau Mexique from Bordeaux 65.0 cases liqueurs at 16 rls.

Vermicelli—per Julia R. from Genoa 980 boxes at 21rls in bond: Price firm.

Wine.—Per Pana from Barcelona her cargo retailed at 51 pats. per Francisqueta from do 100 pipes at 51 pats. per Virgen del Carmen 270 pipes same price, 40 do, do at 50 do.

There is some difficulty in obtaining this price, which is likely to decline if arrivals continue as up to the present on a large scale.

Oil, per Virgen del Carmen from Barcelona 500 jars at 11¼ rls.

IMPORTS.

Lumber.—Per Hebron from New-York 262,000 feet white pine 41 pat, on board per Kremlin from Port land in cargo at private terms.

Coal: per Western Star from Cardiff 400 tons at 11 1|4 part on board Tiles. per Maria Luisa from Marseilles 50,000 tiles at 22 pats on board.

Salt—per Brigsitte Melchior from Cadiz 3800 fanegas at 9 1|4 rls on board: same amount per Scrivegni from do at same price: a few parcels from Pasagones at 7rls on board; per Stagno from Cadiz 2000 fanegas at 9 1|2 rls; per Solide from do 1700 at same prices

Prices have a declining tendency on account of large imports.

PRODUCE REPORT.

Since last packet transactions in produce have been considerable in saladero produce, dry hides and wool.

A slight decline is observable in the rate of Saladero produce and dry hides and wools have maintained their price without any sensible alteration.

From the rivers we notice more animation in saladero produce and contracts have been made for about 20,000 novillo salted hides at 15 a 16 thousand quintals bee at 15 3|4 and 15 7|8 rls.

Wool. Arrivals from the camp up to the present amount to about 1,300,000 arrobes of which about one million sold and the remainder in deposit. Prices may be quoted as follows.

Fine mestizo, superior	$ 9 1|4 to 9
good do	do	85 to 90
good to fair	do	80 to 85
middling do	do	75 to 80
mixed do	do	65 to 75
inferior do and Creole		50 to 65

The following sales of wool from other parts have been effected during the forthnight.

Entre Rios.—700 arrobes mestizo 30 rls; 6100 do mixing 27 rls; 400 do do at 26 rls; 800 do do at 22 and 25rls;

Cordoba.—Wool is nominal by what sales; but no sales have been effected lately and little offered transactions of carriuches have been effected during the month past for 150 packages at 25 rls.

Hare.—Arrivals have continued on a diminished scale and have come principally from the south of the province which is the best quality. Prices as follows.

Hair, South, mixed	$ 100 to 103
do West do	90 to 95
do North do	80 to 85.

The following sales have been made from the rivers, 21 bales Entre Rio 21 cs. 120 arrobes do 30 1|4 rls, 46 bales Corrientes same price.

Mares Greace.—120 pipes sold for exportation at 40 32 and small lots selling gradually at 35 without cash.

Tallow.—100 pipes at 13 rls.

Hides at 14 1|2 rls. 800 pipes from Entre Rios sold at 15 1|2 rls.

Cattle.—Few sales have been effected during the month at the previous rates of 160 and 170 per head a few choice lots at 190.

Jerked Beef.—2200 quintals at 17 1|2rls; 5000 do do at 16 1|2 rls; 4500 do at 16 rls; 900 do at 18 rls:

Bones and Bone ash Few transactions has been effected chiefly at private terms.

Ostrich Fea hers. Selling in small lots at $ 28 per pound for loose. We know of no transactions in matted feathers, nominal quotations $ 32 a 35.

Sheep skins—Arrivals have become very limit d and prices have risen some what lower than for some time past, on account of the inferior condition of the article.

☞ For hides see our next edition.

EXCHANGE.

About £ 170,000 sterling have been drawn by this mail on England and the continent

The rate on Eng and has been firm at 67 shillings throughout the forthnight and only a few small bills have been taken at under that rate. There have been few drawers and many takers.

Bolivianos currency continues in proving in price there being some demand for the rivers; the last sale have been effected at 20 1|2 per ounce.

Paper money has declined very sensibly since last mail, owing chiefly to the large amount of gold lately exported and speculation. It is now worth $421 1|2 per doubloon.

We understand that the specie in the National Bank, or Casa de Moneda, is nearly exhausted, and that they are buying ounces in Montevideo. The run on gold is very heavy, the River Plate Bank drew ten thousand ounces out of the Mauá Bank to day. Gold is very scarce, the only hold being the Mauá Bank.
